Have your cake and eat it too!

Jen Hancock of the Cake and Craft Shop tells Kathy and Donald all about wedding cakes.

Jen and her partner, Hope Ferguson, will create for you a cake in keeping with the wedding you have planned...just the right colors and just the right size; it will be reasonably priced too.

In addition, the Cake and Craft Shop offers bridal books, plates and napkins, toasting glasses, wedding pillows and baskets, crocheted flowers and personalized gifts.

When it's wedding time or party time, then you need to see the folks at the Cake and Craft Shop.

The Cake and Craft Shop

Church Street, Appomattox, Va.
Phone 352-2687

Home entertainment at it's best!

Roy Franklin, who, with his wife Betty, owns and operates Appomattox Electronic Service, shows Kathy and Donald a television with remote control by Zenith.

The ultra modern styling of the console set plus the quality that Zenith builds in, means this TV is an excellent buy for newly weds or anyone interested in owning the finest in television sets.

Appomattox Electronic Service

Main Street Appomattox, Va.
Phone 352-8779

Genius at work!

Jim Ford or the new computer? Whichever, you'll agree that State Farm Insurance is very innovative when it comes to helping young people with their insurance needs.

Jim Ford programs information into the computer to show Donald and Kathy a life insurance plan best suited to their needs.

James H. Ford, Jr.

State Farm Insurance
"Like A Good Neighbor, State Farm Is There"
300 N. Court St., Appomattox, Va.
Phone 352-7916

Sharp looking couple... Sharp looking car!

Elwood Batts, salesman at Moses Motor Co. Inc. shows Kathy and Donald some of the features available on this Chevrolet Camero.

Whether you're looking for something sleek and sporty or a station wagon for the family, Moses Motor has the right Chevy for you!

Moses Motor Co. Inc.

Moses Street, Appomattox, Va.
Office 352-5440 Parts 352-7102
Service 352-7103